

Alessandro Cassinerio

Grants Program Manager at The Anna Trust

Previously, Alessandro served as Head of Programmes in Cambodia, where he led multi-sectoral development initiatives in climate action, disaster risk reduction, and inclusive development, strengthening program performance and increasing income through strategic donor engagement.

Alessandro has extensive experience designing and implementing complex, multi-stakeholder projects across Southeast Asia, collaborating with partners including the European Union, UN agencies, and other international development actors.

His work has focused on disaster risk reduction, climate adaptation, vocational training, livelihoods, and community development, with an emphasis on building resilience and promoting sustainable, inclusive growth.

Earlier in his career, he worked as a Financial Controller and Compliance Consultant in Myanmar, advising international clients on regulatory and financial matters, and as a Grant Coordinator supporting livelihood and empowerment programs in Ecuador.

Alessandro holds Master's degrees in International Cooperation and in Business and Corporate Management from Università Carlo Cattaneo, LIUC and ISPI in Milan. He is fluent in English and Italian, with working knowledge of Spanish, and brings nearly 15 years of experience delivering sustainable development impact across diverse contexts.
