

Juan Rodrigo Acuña González

Finance Manager at The Anna Trust

Juan is a Religious Brother and Industrial Engineer with more than two decades of experience in nonprofit financial administration and intercultural collaboration within Catholic religious institutions. He has served as General Treasurer of the Missionaries of the Precious Blood in Rome and as Vice President of the Association of English and French Speaking General Treasurers, supporting international congregations in strengthening financial stewardship, transparency, and governance.

Juan holds a Master in Nonprofit Administration from the University of Notre Dame and a Master in Pastoral Studies from Catholic Theological Union in Chicago. He earned his degree in Industrial Civil Engineering and a Diploma in Environmental Engineering from the Pontificia Universidad Católica de Chile. His training also includes Church communication, peacebuilding, and clinical pastoral education.

Fluent in Spanish, English, and Italian, Juan brings a strong ethical foundation, a commitment to the mission of the Catholic Church, and extensive experience working across Latin America, Europe, and the United States. His work integrates technical expertise, pastoral sensitivity, and a deep dedication to the values of human dignity and service.
