- 25, 26 & 27

from 1 to 4.30 pm
(CET, Rome Time)

The Discerning Leadership Program, the UISG and the USG, offer an online formation on leadership for Superiors General and General Councilors based in Africa and Latin America.

The formation will focus on the personal and spiritual leadership of the participants to enhance their capacity to lead their teams and congregations.
For more information, please see below.

For a Congregation to participate, the Superior General of the Congregation must participate. We encourage the participation of at least two to three council members from each congregation.

A reliable internet connection is essential for following and participating in the sessions. The formation will consist of 24-sessions online spread over in 12 days.
