INTERNATIONAL UNION
SUPERIORS GENERAL

PROGRAMME for the PREPARATION of FORMATORS
2027

OUR PURPOSE

In response to the need to prepare sisters for formation ministry, the International Union of Superiors General (UISG) offers a Programme in English for sisters who will be responsible for accompanying those in the initial stages of formation. This Programme is offered in the context of present-day religious life, and the needs of the Church and the World in the 21st Century.

PARTICIPANTS 2019 – 2026

342 sisters

139 congregations

67 countries

“I found the Programme very enriching, especially for my own personal growth. I experienced a kind of transformation that was very satisfying. I go back a different person and well prepared for the ministry of formation.”

(From a former participant)

Topics to be covered:

- Consecrated life and the vows from different perspectives
- Basics of the Ministry of Formation
- Interculturality and Intercultural living
- Human, psychological and spiritual growth
- Spirituality, spiritual accompaniment
- Prayer, community, and ministry
- Creative Processes for Self-Knowledge
- Discernment and Leadership
- Mission and Global Concerns

During the Programme, the participants form a learning and supportive community, take leadership responsibilities and share the uniqueness of their cultures.

The participants will have on-going mentoring, a Directed Retreat and the opportunity for a Personality Assessment at the Institute of Psychology of the Gregorian University.

They will also have an opportunity to visit significant places for prayer and reflection.

The participants will:

- Be physically and psychologically healthy, capable of reflection and interiorization
- Be capable of dialogue and sharing in an intercultural context
- Have the potential to be a good formator
- Have made perpetual vows
- Be currently responsible for formation or already named for this role
- Have a sufficient level of English to participate well in the Programme
- Be recommended by their Superior General.

The Programme offers various ways to help the participant integrate the content of the Programme including personal reflection, mentoring group work and interaction. Each participant assumes the responsibility for her own human and spiritual growth and commits herself to active and engaged participation.
